SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

X The defendant shall pay any financial penalty that is imposed by this judgment and that remains unpaid at the commencement of the term of supervised release. Having assessed the defendant ability to pay, payment of the total criminal monetary penalties shall be paid in equal monthly installments of $10.00 or ten percent of his net monthly income, whichever is greater, to commence 30 days after release from imprisonment to a term of supervision.

X The defendant shall provide the probation officer and the Financial Litigation Unit of the United States Attorney's Office with access to any requested financial information. The defendant is advised that the probation office may share financial information with the Financial Litigation Unit.

X The defendant shall apply all monies received from income tax refunds, lottery winnings, judgments, and/or any other anticipated or unexpected financial gains to outstanding court-ordered financial obligation. The defendant shall immediately notify the probation officer of the receipt of any indicated monies.

X The defendant shall submit his person, residence, real property, vehicle and any other property under his control to a search, conducted by any United States Probation Officer and such other law enforcement personnel as the probation officer may deem advisable and at the direction of the United States Probation Officer, at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of release, without a warrant. Failure to submit to such a search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall inform any other residents that the premises and other property under the defendant's control may be subject to a search pursuant to this condition.

X Due to the defendant's substance abuse history, the defendant shall participate as directed and approved by the probation officer, in treatment for narcotic addiction, drug dependence, or alcohol dependence, which includes urinalysis and /or other drug detection measures and which may require residence and/or participation in a residential treatment facility, or residential reentry center. The number of drug tests shall not exceed 52 tests in a one-year period. Any participation will require complete abstinence from all alcoholic beverages and any other substance for the purpose of intoxication. The defendant shall pay for the costs associated with services rendered, based on a Court approved sliding fee scale as directed by the probation officer. The defendant's financial obligation shall never exceed the total cost of services rendered.

X Due to the defendant's mental health diagnosis, the defendant shall participate in a program of mental health treatment, which may include participation in treatment for anger management, domestic violence, cognitive skills, or other forms of therapy or counseling that may be recommended, as directed by the probation officer. This may include a mental health assessment and/or psychiatric evaluation. This may require participation in a medication regimen prescribed by a licensed practitioner, at the direction of the probation officer. The defendant shall pay for the costs associated with services rendered, based on a Court approved sliding fee scale as directed by the probation officer. The defendant's financial obligation shall never exceed the total cost of services rendered

X The defendant shall refrain from any use of alcohol.
